21            in the presence of counsel, and who may not personally receive or 22            keep any copies of the information.
- 23       f. Counsel for the defendant shall maintain a log of any copies made,
24            provided, and/or examined to or by any of the aforementioned
25            individuals, which log shall include the document(s) copied or 26            examined and the person(s) provided to for each copy made.

27       3. A copy of this order shall be maintained with the information at all times.

4. All individuals who receive access to the materials pursuant to this Order, prior to receiving access to the materials, shall sign a copy of this order acknowledging that:

6. No other person may be allowed to examine the material without further court order. Examination of the information shall be done in a secure environment which will not expose the materials to other individuals not listed above.
7. Other than the copies authorized and logged in paragraph 2, no copies of any of the information may be made without further court order.
8. Any pleadings that include or make reference to the information, or the above-described orders or their contents, shall be filed under seal, absent express written stipulation by the parties.
9. No person who has access to the information shall inform any individual not listed above as to the contents of the information disclosed in any manner, form, or fashion, whether written or oral.
